WEDNESDAY SEPT 22.

THE bark Jalmer which arrived on Sunday morning last bringing dates to Sept. 2d, brought the startling intelligence of the suspension of the Bank of California and the death of its connected of Resources for the Island of Oaks, in president Wm. C. Ralston. The suspension of W. L. MORRONTA, Masser of Interior. the Bank which occurred on the 28th of August, seems to have been the result of slander. 2 % Knowana has the far been arrested Persot our reports started by politicisms and diligently series of Ewa and Walness, vice J. One of these was to the effect that Mr. Raiston had purchased a large interest in the San Francisco Water Works, and was trying many in Commence for many as her language of through the elections, to force them upon the city at a price of $15,000,000. It will be seen by reference to our news columns that the Bank of California has made arrangements for a speedy resumption of busi-

The death of the great banker is the saddest result of this political squabble. It took place suidenly the day after the Bank closed and it was at first reported to have been intentional, but subsequent developments proved the story false. It was doubtless caused by the intense excitement to which he was subjected, and during which he took little or no nourishment. His funeral was a most imposing pageant, and the whole city, rich and poor, saints and sinnors, mourned his loss as they would that of a

WE quite agree with the Islander's correspendent "A. S. H." that much can be fairly said upon both sides of the license to practice medicine question. Believing that there is some force in the adage that a prophet is never without bonor save in his own country, we propose to make extracts from the works of Mr. Herbert Spencer, quite pertinent to this now vexed question. Says Mr. Spencer:

"This theory of which Boards of Health and the like are embediments, is not only inconsistent with our definition of State-duty, but is further open to strictures, similar to and equally fatal with, those made in analogous cases. If by saying that it is the duty of the state to adopt measures for protecting the health of its subjects, it is meant (as it is meant by the majority of the medical profession) that the state should interpose between quacks and those who patronize them, or between the druggist and the artisan who wants a remedy for his cold-if it is meant that to guard people against empirical treatment, the state should forbid all unlicensed persons from rights are infringed by these, as much as by buy. On no pretext whatever can a barrier be set up between them, without the law of equal freedom being broken; and least of all may the government, whose office it is to uphold that law, become a transgressor of it. Moreover, this doctrine, that it is the duty of the state to protect the health of its subjects, cannot be established, for the same reason that its kindred doctrines cannot, namely, the impossibility of saying how far the alleged duty shall be carried out. Health depends upon the fulfillment of certain conditions-can be 'protected' only by ensuring that fulfillment; if, therefore, it is the duty of the state to protect the health of its subjects, it is its duty to see that all the conditions of health are fulfilled by

"There is a manifest analogy between committing to government guardianship the physical health of the people, and committing to it their moral health. The two proceedings are equally reasonable, may be defended by similar arguments, and must stand or fall together. If the welfare of men's souls can be fairly dealt with by acts of Parliament, why then the welfare of their bodies can be likewise. He who thinks the State commissioned to administer

Obstacles to Agriculture.

We of Hawaii are too much accustomed to think that the pursuit of agriculture is here attended with extraordinary difficulties. That the farmer of this country is beset with more ensmiss in the shape of caterpillars, grubs and worms, rust, blight, rate and birds, than are found in most other countries. But are we not too easily discouraged? Would not the same plack and perseverance which is so essential to agricultural success elsewhere, reduce the average of failures in a wonderful degree here? Conditions vary the world round, and it is only publication of what is styled extracts from minutes by experiment that the rules applying to the science of agriculture in Hawon ner can be ascertained-a manual on grape culture in Italy, The first boat City of Malbourne was again much use to us, as a treatise on the tides of our own earth would be to the inhabitants of Mars. We must begin de soro and acquire victory entw for every hour gained ahead of achedale time, through our failures. Our great staple the sugar-cane and its enemies are now pretty well understood. The perlag, or worm, which in fomer times was so troublesome in fields of young came often ap-pearing in such countless hordes as actually to cover the ground for acres, has, owing perhaps to an increase of birds, ceased to be productive of much evil. The bover is kept under control without much difficulty by care in cultivation. We firmly believe that coffee is destined to secome eventually one of our most important exports. It seems to be a settled fact that the blight which has been so discouraging to coffee planters for some time past, may be avoided by sheltering the plants from the wind, and more particularly from the trade-widd.

The Death of Ex Governor Nahno-Iclua.

We regret to be compelled to announce the death of this old and faithful servant of the Hawaiian Government which occurred at Lahaina on Wednesday the 15th inst, His Excellency was born at Kawaihae on the Island of Hawaii in the year 1806, making him sixty-nine years of age. It is said that his name which means "the two foreigners' was given him on account of Kamehameha having taken the two foreigners, John Young and Isse Davis into his employ. He succeeded James Young Kanehou as Governor of the Mani group, which office he continued to hold, until requested by His Mujesty to enter His Cabinet as Minister of Finance. He was compelled after a few months to retire from the public service on account of failing health, and has since lived quietly at his home in the town of Lahaina. He was a man of great decision of character, and of extraordinary executive ability. He had two children both of whom died young, and we are informed that his proprescribing—then, the reply is, that to do so perty, which is quite large, has been left by is directly to violate the moral law. The extent of the damages are perhaps not generally known and we were tode. The heavy fore and main trusses, bands, and aling plates have been replaced by new ones. The patent steering gear also necessitated a heavy forg. ing, the fore stay plates, outriggers, bumpkins and a great variety of iron work which was torn and twisted by the gale so as to be unfit for further use has been renewed and fixed in position. The damages incurred by the collision with the Cyphrenes are of a still more serious nature: the bowsprit, a huge cylinder of iron plats some 35 feet long by 2 feet wide, in its greatest diameter was smasted up as though it had been so much pepier-macks and has been almost entirely remade. The strap and plates were cut and torn off, cutwater crushed, and figure beed shattered beyond all possibility of recognition, the stem bent to right angles involving the strip-ping of the plates from the hows, the straightening of the stem and the replating thereof. It must be a matter for satisfaction to saip owners and others abroad, as well as subject for self gratulation, that our port possesses facilities and means whereby dis-asters of the gratual values to fee and to conastern of the gravest nature to iron and wooder reseates of the gravest nature to iron and wooder reseats and stemmer can be satisfactorily, if not quite so appendity executed as in other and larger ports. ## The News From the Colonies.

By the arrival of the "City of Melbourne," on Friday last we obtain little of interest, with the exception of the sad nows of the tragical death of Commodore Goodenough, and two seamen of H. M. S. Pearl at Santa Cruz. We quote the following interesting account :

Her Majesty's ship Pearl arrived in Sydney Harbor on Monday Aug 23, with the startling intelligence of the massacre of Commodore Goodenough on the island of Santa Cruz. The facts, so far as they may be gathered from the brief efficial report with which we have been furnished, are that on the 12th of August the coem farminose, are that on the 12th of August the Commodore, with some men and officers, landed on Sonia Cruz Island, and, encouraged by a friendly re-ception on five adjacent islands, entered a village, mixed freely with the natives, and were received with anded the Commodure in the side. After this several flights of arrows were discharged on party, are of whom were wounded, the Commedore being wounded a second time in the head. It appears that at first no danger was anticipated from the
